

Chapter 2

Blanca and Luca go on a scavenger hunt.

It was a bright and sunny Saturday morning when Sophie and James decided to take their guide dogs, Blanca, and Luca, on a special adventure. They had planned a scavenger hunt in the local park, and both dogs were wagging their tails in excitement.

Sophie, holding Blanca's leash, and James, with Luca by his side, gathered at the park entrance. Sophie read the first clue aloud: "Find the tallest tree in the park and look for a hidden treasure at its base."

Blanca, a golden retriever with a keen sense of direction, led Sophie confidently towards the towering oak tree in the center of the park. Luca, a black Labrador with a nose for adventure, followed closely with James. As they reached the tree, Blanca sniffed around and soon found a small box hidden among the roots. Inside, they discovered the next clue: "Find the bench with the best view of the pond."

With Blanca and Luca leading the way, they made their way to the scenic pond. The bench they were looking for was shaded by a willow tree, offering a perfect view of the ducks swimming lazily. Underneath the bench, they found another clue: "Search for the flower bed with the most colorful blooms."

The dogs trotted happily towards the flower garden, their noses twitching with the scent of fresh flowers. Blanca and Luca sniffed around until they found a small envelope tucked among the vibrant tulips. Sophie opened it and read the final clue: "Find the statue of the park's founder and look for a surprise nearby."

Excitedly, they headed towards the statue, which stood proudly near the park's entrance. Blanca and Luca circled the statue, their tails wagging furiously. James spotted a small package hidden behind the statue's base. Inside, they found a bag of dog treats and a note that read, "Congratulations, Blanca and Luca! You have completed the scavenger hunt!"

Sophie and James rewarded their loyal guide dogs with the treats, praising them for their excellent work. Blanca and Luca, tails wagging and eyes shining, enjoyed their well-deserved snacks. The scavenger hunt had been a wonderful adventure, filled with teamwork, exploration, and fun.

As they walked home, Sophie and James could not help but feel grateful for their incredible guide dogs. Blanca and Luca had not only helped them navigate the park but had also made the day unforgettable with their boundless enthusiasm and love.